

Life Skills Facilitator Job Description

Beyond The Bell is a non-profit organization working with children and young people ages 9-20 and parents or other caregivers by providing substance abuse prevention, life skills and other programs to support youth in their efforts to live a healthy and safe lifestyle.

This position is a trainer facilitator for Beyond The Bell, Inc. The position requires a certificate of training completion in Botvin Life Skills, an evidenced-based curriculum. Beyond The Bell will provide this training and certification. Additionally, you will be required to take and pass the Mandate to Report training, an online course lasting about 2-hours.

This is a full-time position which requires flexibility and dependable transportation.

The Botvin curriculum not only prepare youth on how to deal with the challenges of life but evidence also show youth are less likely to smoke, drink, or use drugs. In addition the program also teaches various other skills, which help increase self-esteem, increase the ability to make decisions, communicate effectively and helps students learn to manage anxiety among other life skill topics.

The facilitator must be able to work well with youth of all backgrounds and ethnicities and diversity and comfortable with classroom teaching. This position must also assist in administering pre and post surveys, classroom attendance rosters, and other state required reports.

Must have excellent interpersonal skills and organizational skills.

The Facilitator reports directly to the Project Coordinators in each region.

The program must be implemented with fidelity, the facilitator must be flexible and able to facilitate classes in two of Beyond The Bell regions, Upson County and Rockdale/DeKalb Counties.

Salary is commensurate with experience and workload and there is a stipend for travel outside your home base. This position requires a 2 year or higher degree in a related field or appropriate experience working with children and/or facilitating programs.
